

Name: Richard Griswold

Courses Taught:

Lecturer, Undergraduate Beginning of Design Studies, Fall 2003-present – Boston Architectural College

Lead Lecturer and Administrator, BAC Summer Academy Summer Program (with Kara Peet and Lee Peters) 2006

Educational Credentials:

Harvard University Graduate School of Design- Master in Architecture
-Alpha Rho Chi Medal “for leadership, service, and promise of professional merit”.

Bennington College, Bennington, VT- B.A. in Visual Art

-Concentration in architecture and photography

Teaching Experience:

Bennington College, July High School Program – Instructor, Architecture

Wentworth Institute of Technology – Instructor, DSGN 150, Drawing 2 and Lecturer, INTD 480, Preservation and Restoration of Architecture and Interiors

Harvard University Graduate School of Design, Architecture Department – Assistant Instructor, GSD 2101 Visual Studies (Fall 1995)

University of Oregon, Nomad Visiting Lecturer Program (February 2014) Lecture to the Comparative Literature and Architecture departments

Professional Experience:

Boston Architectural College (January 2008-Present)

-Associate Vice President (formerly Associate Provost) and Dean of Students

Director, Foundation Studies (Spring 2003 through Fall 2007)

Interim Associate Director, Interior Design Department (Fall 2001 through Fall 2002)

Elliott Associates, Architects, Belmont, MA (January 1997-present)

-Architectural Design Consultant

Freelance Work, Boston, MA (January 1997-2008)

-Designer, Researcher

Licenses/Awards:

Macdowell Colony (Winter 2008/2009 and Winter 2010/2011) Fellow in Architecture

BAC Ed Toomey Award for student advocacy

BAC EDCO Grant (June 1997 and June 1998) $5,000 research for Gibson House: Mining the Museum