

Name: Marilyn Moedinger, AIA, NCARB. LEED AP

Courses Taught (beginning Fall 16):

ARC 3309, ARC 3022, ARC 3021, TM 2006, AS 7202, TM 7632, FND 2003, GW 4720, GW 4724,

Educational Credentials:

BS Arch, University of Virginia, 2005
BA History [fulfilled all requirements], University of Virginia, 2005
M.Arch, University of Virginia, 2010

Teaching Experience:

Member of the Faculty, BAC, 2012-present
Adjunct Professor, Wentworth Institute of Technology, 2014-present
Adjunct Professor, Northeastern University, 2010-2011; 2016

Professional Experience:

Artisan Construction, Inc, Charlottesville, VA, Project Manager, 2005-2009
Utile Inc Architecture and Planning, Boston, MA, Senior Designer, 2010-2012
Boston Architectural College, Boston, MA, Director of Practice Instruction, 2012-2013
Runcible Studios, LLC, Boston MA, Founding Principal, 2013-present

Licenses/Registration:

Massachusetts and Pennsylvania

Selected Publications and Recent Research:

"Dirty Words: How to Start Your Own Practice." Harvard Graduate School of Design, Women in Design Guest Lecturer. 2016.

"Trench [ant]: Notes and Drawings from the Messiness of Practice." University of Maine at Augusta, guest lecturer 2015.

"Models in Experiential Education" Association for Continuing Legal Education Conference, Chicago, IL, Panelist and presenter 2015.

"Vernacular Energy Mapping: Contextualizing and Uncovering Energy Footprints and Flows in Two 18th Century Pennsylvania Farmhouses." Vernacular Architecture Foundation Conference, Chicago, IL, Peer reviewed presenter and panelist. 2015.

"The Business of Design" General Assembly Boston/Just Us Gals Ladies Lounge Speakers' Series, Panelist. 2015.

"Construction Documents: Best Practices" The Business of Architecture podcast, Panelist. 2015.

"Vernacular Energy Mapping: Intersection of Historic Preservation and Sustainability." Boston Architectural College, Distance M.Arch Intensive guest lecturer [invited] 2015.

"Vernacular Energy Mapping: Contextualizing and Uncovering Energy Footprints and Flows in Two 18th Century Pennsylvania Farmhouses." 18th ICOMOS General Assembly and Scientific Symposium, Florence, Italy. Peer reviewed presenter and panelist. 2014.

SOM Prize Winner/Fellow 2010-2012

Professional Memberships:

The American Institute of Architects
Chairman of the Advisory Board, Northeastern University Law School's NuLawLab
Vernacular Architecture Forum
NCARB