

SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER (SSN) APPLICATION PROCESS

SSN DOCUMENTS OVERVIEW

Below are the documents you need to possess and to bring to the SSA:

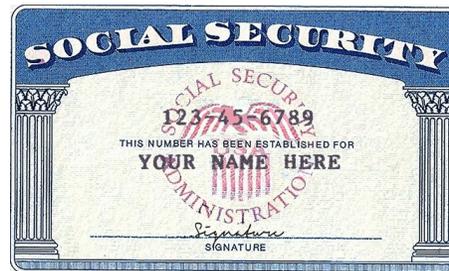

1. Passport
2. Most recent I-94
3. F-1 visa (does not apply to citizens of Canada)
4. Most recent form I-20 with CPT approval (if applicable, otherwise your most recent I-20)
5. Copy of DSO letter (International Advisor will provide that once CPT is approved/on-campus job offer is issued)
6. Job offer letter

F-1 students can start working and get paid while the SSN application is pending. Please see this SSA resource for more information.

SSN APPLICATION PROCESS OVERVIEW

To apply for SSN, you will need to visit the “Request a Social Security number” website. Once your online application has been completed via the aforementioned portal, visit, in person, the SSA (Social Security Administration) Office at 10 Causeway St, Boston, MA 02222 (OR your local SSA Office if you don’t live in Boston) with the indicated documents on your appointment date. At the end of the application process online, you will be prompted to make an account, follow the instructions and then an appointment window will populate. Once you go in person and the requested documents are certified, the actual SSN card will arrive in the mail within approximately 14 business days.

1. Go to
<https://www.ssa.gov/number-card/request-number-first-time>
& click
“Get Started”

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL ssa.gov/number-card/request-number-first-time. The page has a dark blue header with a breadcrumb trail: Home > Social Security number & card > Request a Social Security number. On the left, a navigation menu lists: Number & card (selected), Replace card, Request number for the first time (highlighted in blue), Report stolen number, and Personal record. The main content area is titled "Request Social Security number for the first time" and includes the text: "Request a number for free if you do not have one." Below this, it states: "A Social Security number is a 9-digit number that's unique to you. You may need your Social Security number to:" followed by a bulleted list: File taxes, Start a job, Open a bank account, Apply for a loan, Get a passport, and Claim government benefits. At the bottom right, there is a grey box titled "Apply for a Social Security number" with a computer icon, the text: "If you're in the U.S., you can apply online, then go to a local Social Security office to provide your documentation. Once your application is approved, you'll receive a Social Security card with your number on it by mail within 14 days." and a blue "Get started" button. A large green arrow points from the left towards the "Get started" button.

Privacy Act Statement Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 202, 205(c), and 702 of the Social Security Act (Act), as amended, allow us to collect this information, which we will use to assign a Social Security number, issue a Social Security card, and make a timely determination concerning eligibility for Social Security benefits. Providing the information is voluntary, but not providing all or part of the information may prevent us from assisting you. As law permits, we may use and share the information you submit, including with other Federal agencies, contractors, and others, as outlined in the routine uses within System of Records Notices (SORN) 60-0058, 60-0089, 60-0090, and 60-0104, available at www.ssa.gov/privacy. The information you submit may also be used in computer matching programs to establish or verify eligibility for Federal benefit programs and to recoup debts under these programs. The Act also allows us to collect race and ethnicity information, which we will use for research and statistical purposes. Furnishing us this information is voluntary and will not be used in decisions about your application.
