

Name Maryam Eskandari

Courses Taught (beginning Spring 2017):

CD101 A Core I Design Studio

Educational Credentials

B. Arch., University of Arizona, 2005

S.MarchS., Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 2011

Teaching Experience

Visiting Design Crit, Yale University, 2011

Visiting Design Crit, Columbia University, 2015-2014

Undergrad Advisor, Harvard University, 2013 – Current

Design Instructor, Boston Architectural College, 2017-Current

Professional Experience

Project Designer, DLR Group, Phoenix, AZ 2005-2009

Principal, MIIM Designs, Palo Alto, CA 2013-Present

Selected Publications and Recent Research

- Declaration of Independence, (Jossey-Bass, 1999).
- "The Pedagogy of MIIM Designs" Architecture and Construction Vol.34 Summer 2013, pg.192-194, Dubai, UAE
- "Design in Architecture Reflects on Definition and Empathy" AR Magazine Vol.5 Sp13, The Beginning, pg.5-10 edited by Ramin Safarirad, Tehran, Iran
- "American Mosque and Islamic Spirituality" Faith and Form Magazine Vol.42, Issue 2, edited Michael Crosbie, PhD, AIA, New Haven, CT
- "Reconstructing Women Spaces in Contemporary American Mosque" Dichotomy Vol.18, Rumspringa, edited by Kaitlynn Young, University of Detroit Mercy School of Architecture 2012
- "Contemporary American Mosque" In Gender and Sexuality in Urban Space, edited by Andi Sutton; Massachusetts Institute of Technology Press 2012
- "The Next Generation of Architecture in American Mosque" in American Collegiate Society of Architects Journal, Editors Ikhlas Sabouni and Jorge Vanegas Local Identities Global Challenges Vol.99 2012, pg 193-198
- "Pedagogy of Architectural Studios – the Mosque" 2016-present
- "The Mosque: Past Models of Urban and Social Integration" 2016-present
- "Modern Mosques in America + Reimagining Muslim Spaces" Institute Social Policy and Understanding (ISPU) Detroit, Michigan Completed 2014-2016
- "Mosques in America" Aga Khan Program for Islamic Architecture Massachusetts Institute of Technology | School of Architecture and Planning Started 2009-present

Professional Memberships

Open Architecture Collaborative – Board of Director