

Name: Rand Lemley

Courses Taught:

Boston Architectural College 2012-present
Teaching Assistant: Guided students of Michael Fiorillo's Sustainable Material Assemblies course in analyzing precedents and representing details.
Student Development Intern (2012-2014)

Educational Credentials:

Boston Architectural College: 2012-2017
Bachelor of Architecture
Central Texas College: 2008-2010
Associates of General Studies
Tarrant County College: 2006-2007
Cornerstone Honors Program

Professional Experience:

Kao Design Group: September 2015-present
Architectural Designer- Managed Revit model and participated as part of a team to perform research and design high-end residential and nonprofit projects through construction documents.

CBT Architects: November 2013-September 2015
Model Builder- Translated digital files to physical form with consultation with designers.
CA Assistant- Coordinated and reviewed shop drawings between disciplines. Observed building progress and drafted change requests. Managed Revit model during construction administration.

The Seed Company: 2012-2013
Information Technology (IT) Analyst- Assisted in non-profit organization in migration of over 200 email accounts to Microsoft Exchange. Included documentation, user support, and database administration across diverse operating systems, devices, and email applications.

Licenses/Awards:

2017 Alpha Rho Chi Medal
2015 Anthony Tappé Fontainebleau Scholarship
2015 Bob Scagliotti Scholarship
2014 BAC Segment I Portfolio Award
2014 BAC Alumni Scholarship
2013-present Co-Chair, Student Lecture Series at Boston Architectural College
2013-2016 Atelier (BAC Student Government), Student Representative, Vice President, Secretary
2006 Cornerstone Honors Scholarship