

Name Sergio Mazon

Professional Experience

Mazon Lighting Design - Boston, MA

2004 – Present President, Principal Lighting Designer

Teaching Experience

NESAD at Suffolk University – Boston, MA

2015 – 2016

Instructor - Develop and deliver curriculum for accredited Advanced Lighting Studio class.

- Develop curriculum to educate students on lighting technology and design.
- Mentor students through the process of a complete lighting design studio project.

BAC – Boston Architectural College – Boston, MA

2010 – Present

Instructor - Develop and deliver curriculum for accredited Interior Architectural Lighting Design class.

- Develop curriculum to educate students on lighting technology and design.
- Train students how to use technical industry software (AGi32) for project plans.
- Manage relationships between students, administrators and 3rd parties (e.g. project tours, speakers, etc.)

Wentworth Institute Of Technology (W.I.T.) - Boston, MA

2005 – 2006/2011 – 2013

Adjunct Professor - Developed curriculum and taught the Interior Architectural Lighting Design class

- Mentored and educated students on lighting technology and design; assigned and graded class projects.
- Introduced students to the lighting industry through educational visits to manufacturing facilities, lighting showrooms, project tours.
- Promoted network to the design community and continuing education through the Designers Lighting Forum of NewEngland.

Education

Bachelor of Science in Architecture, UFMG - Belo Horizonte, Brazil

Professional Organizations

Past President and board member of the DLF-NE - Designers Lighting Forum of New England, member since 2003

Member of the IESNA - Illuminating Engineering Society of North America, since 2005