

Name: Michael Schanbacher

Courses Taught:

Boston Architectural College – Fall 2007-present

Thesis Distance Program 2010-2011

Masters A –fall 2007-2012

Co-taught with Kerri Frick and Nelson Liu: Beginning studio for masters students at the Boston Architectural College. Final project Dia: Boston, three pieces from Dia's collection are wedged into an urban infill site in Boston's Back Bay.

Educational Credentials:

Rice University, Houston, TX – August 2004-January 2007

University of Virginia, Charlottesville, VA – August 1997-May 2001

B.S. in Arch. May 2001-Minor: Architectural History

Teaching Experience:

Spring 2010: Confabulation. Neuroscience Institute. Boston, MA

- Re-conceptualization of the brain and cognitive science center at MIT, making the leap of faith scientifically

Fall 2009: In The Cloud. Datacenter. Boston, MA

- Datacenter for an urban site in Boston. Making the invisible, visible.

Spring 2009: FLT815. Superconducting Super Collider south of Dallas Texas – peering into the unknown

Professional Experience:

Schwartz/Silver Architects. July 2007-September 2007 + January 2008 – present
Boston, MA

Gregg Bleam Landscape Architects. October 2001-August 2004
Charlottesville, VA

Licenses/Awards:

Registered Architect: Commonwealth of Massachusetts #50092

NCARB Certified: Certificate #71135

While at Schwartz/Silver Architects:

- 2014 GSA Award for Architecture, Construction, Interiors, Communication Design, Urbanism. McCoy Federal Building. Jackson, Mississippi
- 2011 AIA TAP BIM Process Innovation Award. McCoy Federal Building. Jackson, Mississippi
- 2010 GSA Award for Urbanism. McCoy Federal Building. Jackson, Mississippi

Rice University: Summer 2006

- H Russell Pitman Traveling Scholarship

While at Gregg Bleam Landscape Architects:

- 2005 ASLA National Honor Award. Private Garden. Richmond, Virginia