

Name: Michael B. Williams AIA

Courses Taught (beginning Fall 16):

TSM2019 Human Factors Programming and Codes

Educational Credentials

B. Arch., Boston Architectural College, 1984
Miami University, Oxford, Ohio 1966-1969

Teaching Experience

Adjunct Professor, Boston Architectural College, 1998-2005, 2012-present

Professional Experience:

2012-present Principal, Building Opportunities- facilities consulting
1988-2011 Director of Programming
Commonwealth of Massachusetts: Division of Capital Asset Management
1983-1988 Senior Associate: JCA Architects Inc., Boston, MA
1981-1982 Marketing Director, Planner: Lozano White & Associates, Cambridge, MA
1979-1980 Marketing Director: Payette Associates, Architects, Inc.

Licenses/Registration

Massachusetts Registered Architect #7038

Selected Publications/Public Speaking

12 Plans for Mayor Walsh's New Boston: A museum at City Hall. Boston Sunday Globe, 11/10/2013

Keynote Address: Building Better Schools: Opportunities and Challenges August 12, 2003; Architecture Magazine

Panelist:

- A&E Northeast Management Summit - Zweig White; DiCicco, Gulman & Co. LLP; Ames & Gough; Lawson & Weitzen.
- Ethics in Architecture: The Ward Commission then and now. Build Boston

Professional Memberships

- Boston Society of Architects/American Institute of Architects (since 1987)
- CDRC-Boston (Community Design Resource Center). Board, past president
- Society for College and University Planning (SCUP)