ABOUT HIVE WEEK

The Boston Architectural College's (BAC) inaugural Hive Week is a series of design-focused and community networking events that showcase the vibrant network of BAC alumni, faculty, and friends. Taking place April 1 through April 3, the BAC will host a series of public-facing events throughout week, engaging a diverse audience from Boston and around the world in both in-person and virtual settings.

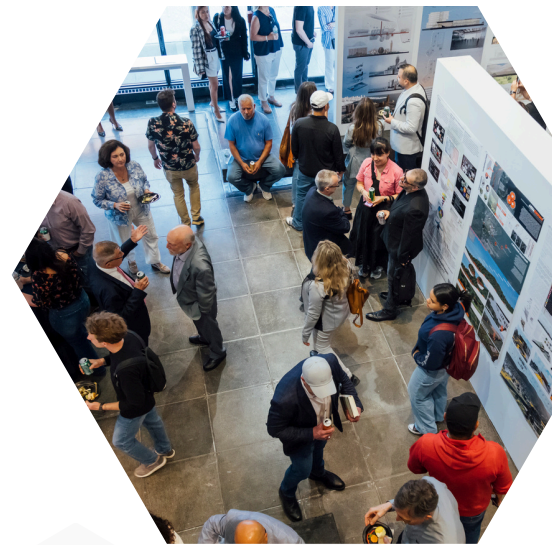

INAUGURAL HIVE WEEK EVENTS:

April 1 | CELEBRATING OUR CHAMPIONS – A reception to thank BAC supporters, fundholders, partners, and volunteers.

April 1 | ALUMNI & FRIENDS AWARDS CEREMONY – An annual celebration of distinguished alumni & friends being recognized for their achievements in the design community.

April 2 - 3 | BAC TALKS - A two-day alumni-focused symposium bringing the design community together for in-depth discussions on relevant topics. This year's theme is 'Urban Resilience & Reconstruction by Design: Regional & Global Perspectives.'

April 3 | HIVE WEEK HAPPY HOUR – An exclusive social event for Hive Week guests to connect and network as the week concludes.
