

David Jaquith, Cert'69
Principal | David F. Jaquith, AIA Architects + Planners

David Jaquith is the principal of David F. Jaquith, AIA Architects + Planners. With over 40 years of experience in architecture and planning on Boston's North Shore, David brings extensive experience to a wide range of work, including residential, commercial, and institutional projects.

David has played a significant role in enhancing the city centers of Beverly, MA. He spearheaded the Beverly Cabot Street Initiative, creating a design standard for storefronts, signage, and community economic development opportunities for local entrepreneurs. In Salem, MA, he helped re-envision the urban core through planning projects that engage pedestrians, transit-oriented housing, and numerous historic restoration projects along the Pedestrian Mall.

Known for his creative and detailed approach to residential design, David tailors his work to align with the visions of his clients and their sites. His dedication to thoughtful and detailed design has earned him numerous awards for historic preservation, including published work for a LEED's Platinum residential project in Beverly, MA.

David currently serves as the Vice Chair of the Rowley Planning Board and the Rowley Affordable Housing Trust. Until fall 2024, he had served for 24 years on the Salem Redevelopment Authority Design Review Board. He holds degrees from Wentworth Institute of Technology, Boston Architectural College, and Harvard University's Graduate School of Design, where he earned a Master of Architecture in Urban Design.

While studying at the BAC, David was elected president of Atelier for two terms and was awarded both the Boston Society of Architects Traveling Scholarship and Ames Scholarship. In addition to his architectural work, David is also a passionate and accomplished artist and photographer.
