Architect | LBE, Inc.

Destiny Hall, AIA, is an architect with LBE, a South Carolina-based architecture and engineering firm specializing in commercial and federal projects across the globe. She joined LBE in 2020 to manage the firm's architecture department, overseeing all architectural design work within the firm. Previously, she focused on residential and commercial projects with Berkshire Design and Bradley Architects, based in Western Massachusetts.

Destiny earned her Master of Architecture degree from Boston Architectural College in 2019. Prior to that, she earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Architecture with a minor in Building and Construction Technology from the University of Massachusetts Amherst in 2017.

An active member of the architecture community, Destiny is dedicated to supporting licensure candidates and recent graduates through the licensure process. She has served as an NCARB Licensing Advisor since 2020 and is currently the 2025 President of AIA Charleston. Additionally, she has contributed to AIA Charleston, serving for multiple years as the Chair of the Emerging Professionals and Young Architects (EP/YAF) Committee.
