

Articulation Agreement

Between

The Boston Architectural College

Bachelor of Architecture

And

The District Board of Trustees of Broward College, Florida

Associate of Arts in Architecture

This document will serve as the official articulation agreement to allow Broward College graduates to move into the Bachelor of Architecture at Boston Architectural College (hereinafter BAC).

Agreement

Upon successful completion of degree at Broward College:

1. Graduates meeting all BAC admission criteria will be granted up to 52.5 credits towards their Bachelor of Architecture degree.
2. This agreement is valid until for five years from the date of adoption.

Admission Criteria for Bachelor of Architecture

General Admission Criteria

1. Broward College students wishing to plan their transfer to BAC are encouraged to communicate early with their academic advisors at Broward College and the BAC's admissions office to ensure that they meet prerequisites for the program and to secure specific information about transfer credits and degree requirements.
2. The student will submit a regular application for admission to The BAC. The student will pay the regular application fee.
3. Students will be required to complete all remaining courses at the BAC unless otherwise approved by the BAC.
4. Students who have additional college or university credits may request to have them recognized as credit equivalencies at their own expense. The BAC's Admissions Office shall decide the granting of credit equivalencies.

BOSTON ARCHITECTURAL COLLEGE

SINCE 1889

5. Broward College will provide an official transcript for each student transitioning to the BAC.
6. Graduates of Broward College can expect to receive credit based on the course structure provided in Appendix A.

Quality Assurance

As a partner in this articulation each party agrees to:

1. Make information about this agreement available to students.
2. To notify the other party with as much lead time as possible of any changes in excess of 25% to the curriculum of the Credential(s) outlined above.
3. To notify the other party with as much lead time as possible of any anticipated or approved changes to admission requirements for the Program(s) approved in this agreement.

Quality Assurance – Changes to the Agreement

1. Changes to the agreement must be communicated, in writing, with as much notice as possible.
2. Changes to the agreement will be reflected at the beginning of the subsequent academic year.
3. Agreements may be cancelled, in writing, with as much notice as possible. Agreements cancelled during the academic year will remain valid until the end of the current academic year.

Quality Assurance – Receiving Institution

1. Upon request and whenever possible, the BAC will share aggregate information about yearly enrolment in the Program(s) listed in this agreement.

Administration, quality assurance, and implementation of this agreement will be through the Admissions Office at the BAC and Broward College (specific contact TBD).

Promotion

Both parties may promote this agreement using existing channels. Both parties will reference this agreement on their websites. In regard to such promotion each party licenses to the other party the right, on a non-exclusive basis, during the term hereof to use the name and logo of the other party to promote, to its students, the Program(s) listed herein.

SINCE 1889

1. Each party will provide the other with sufficient marketing collateral to promote the agreement. Parties will not be responsible for producing any part of the other institution's marketing collateral.
2. The BAC will have an opportunity to visit Broward College's campus or other forums to promote the agreement. Any costs associated with campus visits are the responsibility of the BAC.

Each party acknowledges that it has no authority to assume or create any obligation, explicit or implied, on behalf of the other party, except and solely as specifically stipulated in this agreement. Each party acknowledges that it has no authority to bind the other party in any way whatsoever or to render the other party liable.

This agreement will be in effect from the signing date for a period of five years, at which point the agreement will be reviewed for renewal. Should the agreement not be renewed students who are currently enrolled in the Articulating School programs listed under this agreement will be permitted to complete their studies at either institution under this agreement.

Broward College and Boston Architectural College officials hereby affix their signatures as acceptance of the above conditions.
