

Articulation Agreement

Between

The Boston Architectural College

Master of Architecture

And

George Brown College

Architectural Technology Program

This document will serve as the official articulation agreement to allow George Brown College graduates to move into the Master of Architecture at Boston Architectural College (hereinafter BAC).

Agreement

Upon successful completion of degree at George Brown College:

1. Graduates meeting all BAC admission criteria will be granted up to 43.5 credits towards their Master of Architecture degree. Full-time students can expect to complete the Master of Architecture in 2 years of study after graduating from George Brown College.
2. This agreement is valid until for five years from the date of adoption.

Admission Criteria for Master of Architecture

General Admission Criteria

1. George Brown College students wishing to plan their transfer to BAC are encouraged to communicate early with their academic advisors at George Brown College and the BAC's admissions office to ensure that they meet prerequisites for the program and to secure specific information about transfer credits and degree requirements.
2. The student will submit a regular application for admission to The BAC. The student will pay the regular application fee.
3. Students will be required to complete all remaining courses at the BAC unless otherwise approved by the BAC.

BOSTON ARCHITECTURAL COLLEGE

4. Students who have additional college or university credits may request to have them recognized as credit equivalencies at their own expense. The BAC's Admissions Office shall decide the granting of credit equivalencies.
5. George Brown College will provide an official transcript for each student transitioning to the BAC.
6. Graduates of George Brown College can expect to receive credit based on the course structure provided in Appendix A.

Quality Assurance

As a partner in this articulation each party agrees to:

1. Make information about this agreement available to students.
2. To notify the other party with as much lead time as possible of any changes in excess of 25% to the curriculum of the Credential(s) outlined above.
3. To notify the other party with as much lead time as possible of any anticipated or approved changes to admission requirements for the Program(s) approved in this agreement.

Quality Assurance – Changes to the Agreement

1. Changes to the agreement must be communicated, in writing, with as much notice as possible.
2. Changes to the agreement will be reflected at the beginning of the subsequent academic year.
3. Agreements may be cancelled, in writing, with as much notice as possible. Agreements cancelled during the academic year will remain valid until the end of the current academic year.

Quality Assurance – Receiving Institution

1. Upon request and whenever possible, the BAC will share aggregate information about yearly enrolment in the Program(s) listed in this agreement.

Administration, quality assurance, and implementation of this agreement will be through the Admissions Office at the BAC and the George Brown College (specific contact TBD).

BOSTON ARCHITECTURAL COLLEGE

Promotion

Both parties may promote this agreement using existing channels. Both parties will reference this agreement on their websites. In regard to such promotion each party licenses to the other party the right, on a non-exclusive basis, during the term hereof to use the name and logo of the other party to promote, to its students, the Program(s) listed herein.

1. Each party will provide the other with sufficient marketing collateral to promote the agreement. Parties will not be responsible for producing any part of the other institution's marketing collateral.
2. The BAC will have an opportunity to visit George Brown College's campus or other forums to promote the agreement. Any costs associated with campus visits are the responsibility of the BAC.

Each party acknowledges that it has no authority to assume or create any obligation, explicit or implied, on behalf of the other party, except and solely as specifically stipulated in this agreement. Each party acknowledges that it has no authority to bind the other party in any way whatsoever or to render the other party liable.

This agreement will be in effect from the signing date for a period of five years, at which point the agreement will be reviewed for renewal. Should the agreement not be renewed students who are currently enrolled in the Articulating School programs listed under this agreement will be permitted to complete their studies at either institution under this agreement.

George Brown College and Boston Architectural College officials hereby affix their signatures as acceptance of the above conditions.

Glen S. LeRoy
President, Boston Architectural College

Date

Anne Sado
President, George Brown College

Date